Why do we exist?

Healthy and sustainable rural and urban communities achieve wealth, provide livelihoods, and create equitable opportunities for all people who live there.

To what ends?

Communities Unlimited is an organization that works and collaborates along the rural-urban continuum to create equitable access to:

- Healthy food and drinking water as well as related sanitary services
- Adequate and appropriate housing
- Skills, knowledge and relationships necessary for entrepreneurs to create and run sustainable businesses
- Access to appropriate capital

How do we work?

- Attracting and delivering resources to communities along the rural-urban continuum
- Creating agency, building capacity and supporting problem solving
- Catalyzing deep collaborations locally and regionally
